It's Market Day!

By Vickey Bell

It's Market Day! My mind is willing but my body mumbles fifteen more minutes. Okay, ten more minutes and then it's "up 'n at 'em!" A retiree needs to shake the routine up a little bit...going to the Hillsborough Farmers' Market on Saturdays to {wo}man a booth for myself and Farmer Brown for the eight o'clock opening is my choice. Not one to greet the day quickly, "up 'n at 'em" means getting up around six-thirty so there's time to quietly ease into wakefulness.

Don't get me wrong, I am capable of jumpin' up and goin' but it really must be important. Catching a flight, oversleeping, someone pounding on the door...these are a few instances where taking time to blossom into a considerate human being is just not possible. My sister needs her cup of coffee before speaking; I need enough time to see without squinting my eyes, time to shake off the hazy brain fog, and time to fill my growling belly with a leisurely breakfast.

Breakfast is a huge factor in my retirement routine. As my eyes clear and the brain haze lifts, homemade bread (finally, a no-fail bread recipe) is toasted on the darkest setting, an egg is in the frying pan (sometimes poached or scrambled, I'm not completely anal) and King Cole tea is steeping in the pot. This all takes time. Time that coaxes me into the day. Time that sets a smooth, easy "cha, cha, cha" rhythm throughout the morning, afternoon and evening.

One, two, cha cha cha. Hello World!

Here I am! How's it goin'!?!

Fully awake, the drive through Dawson is lovely, even in the rain. So many shades of green in the trees and bushes. Such beautiful flowers blooming in people's

Connecting Albert County would like to thank Gary Steeves Insurance for their generous contribution of printing colour copies of our newsletter.

Country Cruise-In

The Gary Steeves Insurance Annual "Country Cruise-In" was held on July 6th, 2017. All around the Kiwanis Center in Hillsborough, NB, shiny vehicles were parked — Classic Cars, Street Rods, and Muscle Cars. People sauntered around, relaxed in lawn chairs or looked under hoods.

Eddie Chase and Graffiti Four provided the soundtrack: their live music gave the event a fun atmosphere. The Hillsborough Kiwanis Club fed the huge crowd. All proceeds went towards the many good causes they support.

Want to see more classic cars? Every Tuesday evening for the summer (weather permitting), Gary Steeves Insurance hosts a Classic Car (and motorcycle) Cruise night at the parking lot of the Railway Diner and Broad View Power Sports in Hillsborough.

According to Gary Steeves Insurance, there will be music, door prizes, weekly specials at the diner and a "Car of the Night" award each week. Festivities begin at 6:30pm; prize draws are at 8:30pm. No registration or entry fee but donations accepted (all monies raised go to the Hillsborough Drop In Program). For more information, visit www.garysteevesinsurance.com/events.

Good times in Riverside-Albert!

Shepody Days were held in Riverside-Albert July 7-9th, 2017, and a good time was had by all. On Friday night, the kick-off to Shepody Days featured Chase the Ace, cake and fireworks. On Saturday, there was a Flea Market with lots of cool stuff, face painting, bouncy castles, Little Engine Rides, car extrication and more. The day ended with a variety concert at the Exhibition Grounds featuring lots of local talent.

On Sunday afternoon, the kayak races were (as always) a hit.

Tele-Drive, Crooked Creek Pathfinders and Riverside-Albert Fire Department were the recipients of the proceeds from Saturday night. Proceeds from the canteen throughout the day went to support the Albert Vocational Centre.

In celebrating Canada 150, it was nice to give back to local initiatives that do so much for our communities!

Summer Savory -The Herb of Acadie

Summer savory plays a significant role in the food culture of Atlantic Canada. The herb is associated with holiday food and traditional meals. For example, turkey stuffing is often made with summer savory rather than sage (which is common in the rest of Canada).

Summer savory (which is called “sarriette” in French) plays a special role in Acadian food culture. The herb is the main seasoning in fricot (rabbit or chicken stew) in Acadian communities in New Brunswick. It is also a component of the Herbes de Provence mix.

L’Ancienne d’Acadie is a Canadian variety of summer savory with a multicultural history – reflecting the various people who have lived in the region. It may have originally been brought to what is now New Brunswick by French or British settlers. Compared to modern varieties of summer savory, l’Ancienne d’Acadie is a short, stocky plant with a strong flavour.

The variety has been passed down from generation to generation. Jean Prudent Robichaud (1867-1958) received the seed from a woman from the Esgenoôpetitj First Nation at Burnt Church, NB, while he was working on Mi’kmaq farms using his draft horse. Burnt Church was a French settlement and Mi’kmaq community named for the incident in 1758 when the British burned the community’s church as part of the Acadian expulsion. Jean-Prudent’s descendants maintained the variety, which has been incorporated in the Slow Food Canada Ark of Taste.

Learn how to grow summer savory and enjoy a delicious meal of fricot at the Albert County Museum on Saturday, July 29. The meal with a garden tour and a lively discussion of the origins of fricot, costs just $10 or $8 with museum admission or membership in the Albert County Historical Society. The event is offered in French and English.

Please reserve tickets before July 26 at the museum, by phone at 734-2003 or email at melody@albertcountymuseum.com.

This is part of Growing Together – a project which celebrates Canada's 150th year through food, seeds and stories! This has been made possible in part by the Government of Canada. For details about the museum garden and story project, please contact Janet Wallace at garden@albertcountymuseum.com.

Jocelyne Gauvin’s Acadian Chicken Fricot (Approx. 10 servings)

- 3 lb (1.4 kg) chicken pieces, bone and skin (stewing hen gives a more flavourful broth)
- 10-12 cups (2.5 L) water
- 6 potatoes, peeled, bite size
- 4 carrots, peeled and sliced
- 2 onions, large, chopped
- 2 tbsp (30 mL) butter
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) flour
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) salt/ salted chives
- 1 tsp (5 mL) pepper
- 1-2 tbsp (15 mL) summer savory (or branch and leaves)

In large pot, simmer the chicken, onion and summer savory in boiling water until chicken is tender (~30 min.). Remove the meat with a slotted spoon, saving the broth. Let the chicken cool slightly. Once cool, remove bones and skin and cut chicken into bite-size pieces. Add carrots to the broth; boil for a few minutes until almost cooked. Add potatoes and chicken. Continue boiling gently while you prepare dumplings. Potatoes will be partially cooked when you add dumplings. Adjust seasoning to taste.

Dumplings:

- 1 cup (250 mL) flour
- 1 tsp (5 mL) salt
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) baking powder
- 1/2 cup (125 mL) cold water
- Summer savory (optional)

In a bowl, mix flour, salt and baking powder. Gradually add cold water. Dough will be sticky. Drop the mixture into the simmering fricot, a spoonful at a time (fricot liquid must be gently boiling when dumplings are dropped). Cover and cook for 5-7 minutes. Turn heat off and leave cover on for another 10 minutes. Do not stir the fricot too heavily as the dumplings will be broken and lost as a thickener in the fricot broth.
